Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 23-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Castel or Kulow et al or Lewis Jr. Castel, Kulow et al and Lewis Jr each disclose an ultrasonic therapy method which can be used in the acceleration of wound healing. The steps set forth in the claims regarding the emission and reflection of longitudinal and shear waves would be inherent in the use of the device on a human patient. The reflection of the waves and the angular offset toward a wound would be inherent in the use of the device on a patient in that both skin/tissue and bone present in the patient would inherently cause such reflections and change in direction of at least some of the ultrasonic waves. With regard to claim 30, based upon the known physiology of the treatment area, the angle would be predetermined.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 3737

Claims 23-35 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,190,336. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they involve an obvious broadening of the claimed invention.

Claims 23-35 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 7 of U.S. Patent No. 5,904,659. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they involve an obvious broadening of the claimed invention.
